Computational intelligence: imitating life / edited by Jacek Zurada, Robert J. Congress on Computational Intelligence (WCCI) held in summer in Orlando. Computational Intelligence has emerged from the fusion of the fields of neural networks, fuzzy systems and evolutionary computation. For the first time. Computational Intelligence: Imitating Life by Jacek Zurada, Jack Zurada (Editor), Charles Robinson (Editor) starting at $ Computational Intelligence. The chapter provides an introduction to computational intelligence. algorithm, belief network, chaos theory, computational learning theory and artificial life.
